Q. What payment methods are available for my account?

A. The answer to this question depends on whether your account is registered under your name or a company name;

1. Account registered in your name

In this case the service/s on the account can be paid for by convenience store payment slip, credit card, direct debit or furikomi (payment via an ATM).

2. Account registered under a company name

In this case the service/s on the account can be credit card, direct debit or furikomi (payment via an ATM).

If you have any questions about the payment methods available to you, please feel free to contact us.
